PATRIOT ACT NOTICE

As a result of the events of September 11, 2001...

President Bush signed into law the USA Patriot Act. In order to prevent the use of the US banking system in terrorist and other illegal activity, Section 326 of the Act requires that banks must:

- Verify the identity of any customer opening a new business or personal account.
- Request and maintain records of the information used to verify the customer's identity including name, address, date of birth and taxpayer identification number.

Baltimore County Savings Bank will follow this law by obtaining valid information and verifying all information given by the customer. We will ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. In some cases, identification for existing customers may be requested so the Bank can ensure that its records are accurate.

The Bank supports all efforts to protect and maintain the security of our customers and our country.

* We cannot waive these requirements ****

By signing below, you authorize Baltimore County Savings Bank to make whatever credit inquiries we deem necessary in connection with this credit application or in the course of review or collection of any credit extended in reliance on this application. You authorize and instruct any person to complete and furnish to us any information that we may request and agree that such information, along with this application, shall remain our property, whether or not credit is extended. You represent that all information in this application and in all schedules and financial statements relating to this application is true and correct and was given to induce the Lender to grant the loan for which the application was made and that no information which may relate to the creditworthiness of the applicant and the undersigned has been omitted. The applicant undersigned agrees to pay or reimburse the Lender for the cost of any surveys, title or mortgage examinations, appraisals, credit reports, etc., performed by the Lender as part of the application process.

PERSONAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT

IMPORTANT: Read these directions before completing this statement

If you are applying for individual credit in your own name and are relying on your own income or assets and not the income or assets of another person as the basis for repayment of the credit requested, complete only Sections 1 and 3 and Schedules A through J. Do not include assets owned jointly with others.

If you are applying for joint credit with another person, complete all Sections and Schedules providing information in Section 2 about the joint applicant. Do not include assets owned jointly unless the joint ownership is with your spouse and your spouse is the joint applicant. If the joint applicant is not your spouse, the joint applicant should submit his/her own personal financial statement separate from the applicant.

If you are applying for individual credit, but are relying on income from alimony, child support or separate maintenance on the income or assets of another person as a basis for repayment of the credit requested, complete all Sections and Schedules providing information in Section 2 about the person on whose alimony, support, or maintenance payments or income or assets you are relying.

If this statement relates to your guarantee of the indebtedness of another person(s), firm(s), or corporation(s), complete Sections 1 (and 2 if your spouse is also going to guarantee the indebtedness) and Section 3 and Schedules A through J. Do not include assets owned jointly unless the joint ownership is with your spouse and your spouse is joining with you in the guaranty. If the joint applicant is not your spouse, the joint applicant should submit his/her own personal financial statement separate from the applicant.
