Baltimore County Savings Bank donates funds for Friends of Perry Hall Mansion
Donation for historical renovation of Perry Hall Mansion

BALTIMORE- Baltimore County Savings Bank (BCSB) and the Perry Hall Improvement Association presented the Friends of the Perry Hall Mansion foundation with a check for $7,500 to support the restoration of the historic Perry Hall Mansion on December 13, 2008.

“Being part of an event that supports our community was a honor,” said David Meadows, executive vice president. “With ties to the Baltimore community since 1955, BCSB is proud to help organizations like the Friends of the Perry Hall Mansion.”

As a community bank, BCSB works hard to stay connected and supportive to the local neighborhoods through partnerships with non-profit foundations and organizations. Overall, BCSB has committed $10,000 to the Friends of the Perry Hall Mansion. This money will support the refurbishing of the interior of Perry Hall Mansion.

One of the oldest buildings in Baltimore County, Perry Hall Mansion dates back to 1773 as one of the biggest homes in colonial society, Perry Hall Mansion was named after a castle in England and after two centuries of private ownership, the mansion was sold to Baltimore County in 2001. In 2007, Friends of the Perry Hall Mansion foundation was formed to support the preservation of this historic building.

Founded in 1955, Baltimore County Savings Bank operates under its holding company, BCSB Bankcorp, Inc. BCSB provides regional community banking solutions through 18 locations across the Baltimore metropolitan area. BCSB Bankcorp, Inc. became a publicly traded mutual holding company in July 1998.
