Baltimore County Savings Bank Expands Reverse Mortgage Lending
William L. Wilcox Jr. joins as Senior VP of Reverse Mortgage Lending

BALTIMORE - Baltimore County Savings Bank (BCSB) expands its team with the addition of Will Wilcox as senior vice president of reverse mortgage lending whose responsibilities include the education and origination of FHA insured reverse mortgage loans.

Wilcox will assist customers in determining if a reverse mortgage is appropriate for their situation. BCSB reverse mortgages allow homeowners to take advantage of the equity in their home for debt elimination, supplemental income, home repairs, dream vacations or other large purchases.

“Reverse Mortgages are a good example of the many programs available at BCSB that allow us to serve our customers with the products they need”, says President and CEO Joseph J. Bouffard. Further, “Will Wilcox exemplifies the quality and expertise of BCSB’s staff. He will help our customers benefit from great rates and a great experience throughout the loan process.”

Wilcox joins BCSB from Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation in Baltimore where he served as commercial services manager. He was also employed as senior vice president and director of the residential lending group for Allfirst Financial, Inc. for over 20 years. Wilcox graduated with a Bachelor of Science in real estate from the University of Baltimore and received his Master of Business Administration degree in management from Loyola College in Maryland.

Wilcox is a licensed Maryland Real Estate Appraiser, Real Estate Broker and holds a Title Insurance License. He is also a Certified Mortgage Banker and past president of the Maryland Mortgage Bankers Association.

Founded in 1955, Baltimore County Savings Bank operates under its holding company, BCSB Bancorp, Inc. and provides regional community banking solutions through 18 locations across the Baltimore metropolitan area. For more information, visit www.baltcosavings.com.
