Baltimore County Savings Bank expands financial services division
Sharon Lawson Grinestaff welcomed as vice president and financial consultant

BALTIMORE - BCSB Financial Services, a division of Baltimore County Savings Bank, expands its team with the addition of Sharon Grinestaff as vice president and financial consultant. Through a partnership with LPL Financial, BCSB Financial Services provides individuals and businesses with advice concerning wealth management, tax, insurance, retirement and other planning needs.

“The continued growth of our financial services division, with Sharon’s addition, allows us to consistently meet the growing needs of our customers with trusted guidance from a local professional,” says President and CEO Joseph J. Bouffard. “With over a decade of experience, Sharon’s financial background is a true benefit to our team and our customers.”

Most recently, Grinestaff served as senior financial consultant and vice president at PNC Investments. She began her career as independent financial advisor for Lincoln Financial Advisors and previously held a position as a vice president and financial advisor at First Mariner/UVEST Financial Services. Grinestaff holds a bachelor’s degree in business and economics from Randolph Macon College and holds series 7, 63 and 65 registrations through LPL Financial, as well as Life and Health Insurance licenses.

Founded in 1955, Baltimore County Savings Bank operates under its holding company, BCSB Bancorp, Inc. BCSB provides regional community banking solutions through 18 locations across the Baltimore metropolitan area. BCSB Bancorp, Inc. became a publicly traded mutual holding company in July 1998.
